

It's a Snow Day Celebration!
Friday February 15th

The Elementary students will be having a fun filled "snowy" morning on February 15th! Everyone will be making a snow craft, eating a snow snack, playing snow games, and hearing a snow Bible lesson!

Dress code for the day will be a little different than other Fridays. Everyone knows that the best thing to wear on a snowy day is a pair of warm and cuddly pajamas. So that is what we are going to do! Students may wear pajamas or sweat pants, t-shirts, sweatshirts, and sneakers that day. (Just remember, there should not be any inappropriate clothing worn.) Pajamas are to be worn not nightgowns, no tank tops or spaghetti straps, no slippers (for safety reasons), no shorts, or any shirts with inappropriate messages.

We are looking forward to having a lot of fun as we celebrate a "snow day" together!
